

APA 2016 - DENVER, CO

Div. 15 Early Career Sessions & Events

Division 15 (Educational Psychology) has developed a robust scientific program for the 2016 APA Convention, spanning a variety of interests and disciplines. Below, we've highlighted a few sessions which may be ideally suited for early career psychologists. These sessions combine relaxed networking environments, high-impact guidance, and career advice from field-leading scholars. For our full program and additional convention details, please visit www.apadiv15.org/apa-2016/
