

CALL FOR FELLOWS

APA Division 15, 2023 Submission Year

The Division of Educational Psychology (Division 15) seeks applications for Fellow status of the division. Election to Fellow status in Division 15 of the American Psychological Association requires evidence of distinguished contributions or performance in the field of educational psychology. Distinguished contributions should include published papers or books in the scientific, peer reviewed literature documenting the candidate's work in empirical research or the development of theory or method. In addition, some combination of the following is desirable:

- Publications that reflect a substantial contribution to educational psychology scientific knowledge and methods
- Election to leadership positions in major scientific or professional organizations
- Nomination for, and receipt of, awards for excellence in teaching, scholarship, and/or practice
- Clear evidence of attention to issues of diversity, equity, and social justice
- Documented impact on educational policy or practice that reflects the division's values
- Selection for editorships of journals or books relevant to the field

The Fellow's work must have demonstrated a national impact on the field of educational psychology beyond a local, state, or regional level. Steady and continuing contributions are not sufficient to warrant Fellow status.

Applicants may be those seeking an initial Fellow status in Division 15, or Fellows of other divisions seeking Fellow status in Division 15. To be considered for Fellow status in the division, candidates must have been a member of Division 15 for at least one year prior to the application. Fellows of other divisions who would like to be considered for Fellow of Division 15 must submit a letter addressing how they meet the criteria for Fellow of Division 15, along with a CV. Those who are already fellows of other APA Divisions should not use the APA portal; instead, they should contact Fellows Selection Committee Chair, Dr. Ellen Usher (usher.ellen@mayo.edu).

All applications for initial Fellow status must be completed and submitted online to APA by no later than Monday, November 27, 2023, at: <https://www.apa.org/members/your-membership/fellows/apply>

Application materials include a self-statement, CV, and three letters of endorsement from current Fellows (at least two of whom are Division 15 members).
